Today's Bible Readings

The Old Testament reading tells the beautiful story of Elijah the prophet being fed in a time of famine by a widow who used the last of her flour and olive oil to bake him bread, rather than keeping it for herself and her son. At the intercession of Elijah, the flour and oil miraculously did not run out until the famine was over. In the psalm we acknowledge 'It is the Lord who gives bread to the hungry.

In the Gospel Jesus observes the self-sacrificing act of another widow, who puts two small coins into the collection box in the Temple. But it is all she had to live on, and so she is far more generous than those who made larger financial contributions.

The second reading from the Letter to the Hebrews describes Jesus the High Priest who, (unlike the repeated but ineffective annual action of the Jewish High Priest in the Jerusalem Temple,) enters the presence of God in the heavenly sanctuary once and for all at his Ascension, with his own atoning blood which has done away with human sins through his sacrificial death on the cross.
